Family Owned Since 1990 Second-Generation Operated

Maxine and Allen Miluso purchased Napa Nuts in 1990.

Bonnie and Schecky Miluso, their children, carry on the legacy of unparalleled customer service and a commitment to selling exceptional products.

The best food starts with the best ingredients. And the best ingredients come from the best growers. We go to the ends of the earth to find the finest products; we find most of them from established farmers near our home in Northern California. We have spent decades building strong relationships with vendors to ensure that all of our products are the absolute finest.
